IOWA CRISIS NEGOTIATORS ASSOCIATION REGISTRATION

The Iowa Crisis Negotiators Association (IACNA) was founded in the spring 2016 by a group of law enforcement and corrections personnel from local and state agencies in Iowa. The IACNA is currently working on becoming incorporated as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of Iowa (Iowa Code Section 504.822) and the Federal Tax Code of the United States of America (IRS 501(c)(3)) The IACNA is an educational based association for crisis negotiators and mental health personnel designed to provide networking, interaction and training opportunities for these professionals in Iowa and others throughout our nation.

The IACNA will strive to improve the negotiation skills of our members by providing unique training opportunities such as the annual conference and other unique opportunities when available.

The IACNA is accepting 2017 membership fee for anyone associated with crisis negotiations. IACNA has a website in production and Facebook (Iowa Crisis Negotiators Association) for you to be able to access news and training opportunities relevant to crisis negotiations. The current board determined $10 annual dues to start as of July 2017. The IACNA will have a formal vote for officials at the 2017 conference and competition for all members to select a group of executive officers.
